Smart and circular city. Joint research opportunities between the University of Bologna and the Aoyama Gakuin University in Tokyo, Japan

SEPTEMBER 17th 2019

WORKSHOP

Exploratory meeting between a delegation from the Aoyama Gakuin University and representatives of the University of Bologna, aimed at exchanging knowledge and promoting joint research in the field of Smart and circular city. The expected result is the activation of future collaborations between the University of Bologna and Aoyama Gakuin University for the definition of didactic and research programs between the two institutions, which foresees the exchange of teachers, researchers and students. The seminar will also involve some stakeholders, active in the promotion of tourism and culture.
