

THE UNIVERSITY OF BOLOGNA WITH AFRICA: EDUCATION & RESEARCH TO PRACTICE

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

4 NOVEMBER 2022

3 PM - 4.30 PM CET

ONLINE ON MICROSOFT TEAMS

3 PM Introduction

Welcome and Opening Remarks

Vice Rector for International Relations,
Prof. Raffaella Campaner, University of Bologna

Africa-EU scientific cooperation: an African perspective. Cooperation within European Alliances UNA Europa

Representative from Université Cheikh Anta Diop de Dakar
(TO BE CONFIRMED)

3.15 PM - ROUND TABLES' TALKS

Chair: Delegate for Cooperation and Development,
Prof. Matteo Vittuari, University of Bologna

ROUND TABLE 1: EDUCATION - Examples and good practices of AFRICA-EU cooperation in the field of education

Speakers: Prof. Moussa Sagna, Université Cheikh Anta Diop de Dakar, Prof. Mohamed Mohy Elkarmoty Cairo University

Q&A

ROUND TABLE 2: RESEARCH - Why set up research collaborations with EU universities? Common challenges, added value, good practices

Speakers: Prof. John H. Muyonga, Makerere University, Prof. Eytayo Olatunde Olakanmi, Botswana International University of Science and Technology;
Prof. Peter Appiah Obeng, University of Cape Coast

Q&A

ROUND TABLE 3: OUTREACH - Universities contribution to communities' development, some examples from the UNIBO Global South experience. Why universities' agendas should involve cooperation for development?

Speakers: Prof. Berihu Gebrekidan, Mekelle University and Ethiopia Country Manager, Africa One Health University Network (AFROHUN) together with Prof. Arcangelo Gentile, University of Bologna; Prof. Jayne Mutiga, Nairobi University together with Prof. Silvia Bernardini; Dr Marta Carminati, COMI – Cooperation for the Developing World, together with Prof. Beatrice Maria Sole Giambastiani, University of Bologna

Q&A

4.15 PM – Conclusion

Closing speech, 'Africa-EU scientific cooperation: an EU perspective. Cooperation within Italian Bilateral Scientific Diplomacy'

Dr Eugenio Cavallo, Scientific Officer at the Italian Embassy in Dakar

Closing remarks,

Delegate for Cooperation and Development,
Prof. Matteo Vittuari, University of Bologna

...

For registration, please write an email to irss@unibo.it and specify your role and university